Business Services

Amazon Business Single Sign-On Integration

Saint Louis University is excited to announce that the authentication process for Amazon Business is now easier as we converted our authentication method to single sign-on (SSO) in Amazon Business on 1/31/22.

What changes?

- Prior to this change, when users punched out to Amazon Business from Billiken Buy, they were asked for their Amazon Business password only when they navigated to a non-shopping page (e.g. order status). After SSO was activated on 1/31/22 and they punched out from Billiken Buy to Amazon Business, SSO will real-time authenticate them and will not require users to add any credentials again while on the Amazon Business site. If they are authenticated in Okta, they should be able to access Amazon Business without any additional credentials; however, if for some reason they are not logged into Okta, they will be routed to our Okta Login Page (screenshot below for reference) to enter in their SLU credentials to access Amazon Business.

- Account holders no longer need to maintain or enter Amazon Business-specific log-in credentials. Amazon Business will be accessible through Billiken Buy, which is accessible in Workday.
- We emailed all Amazon Business account holders on Thursday, January 27th, to notify them of this change. If anyone has questions on this topic, they should email Anne Becker at anne.becker@slu.edu.

Airgas – Change in Account Management

Chase Thurston is our new account manager at Airgas. If departments need support or have questions regarding Airgas items or orders, they can reach him at:

P: 314-773-9364

E: chase.thurston@airgas.com

Non-Catalog Blanket Orders in Workday

When approving invoices against non-catalog blanket orders, the POs should not be fully received in. Receipts serve as the approval to pay an invoice function in Workday. Fully receiving in a non-catalog blanket order will result in individual invoices being approved for payment throughout the fiscal year without additional buyer review. This is a violation of SLU's purchasing policies. If you have any questions about this or need assistance in correcting past receipts, please email billikenbuyadmin@slu.edu.

Central Processing

- Direct Deposit ACH: A reminder that ACH is the University's preferred form of payment. Please submit the Direct Deposit Authorization form when creating supplier requests in Workday.
- Deferral/Accrual Threshold: Raised to $5,000 from $1,000 per the Controller. Expenses for a future period will only be deferred (or accrued for a prior period) if they are $5,000 or greater.

Risk Management

Rental Car Insurance

All employees renting vehicles for University business should accept the optional liability insurance offered by the rental agency.

For Enterprise and National rentals, the University's preferred vendors, there will be a $3 per day charge for $1,000,000 of coverage. This additional $3 per day will be automatically added to all rentals.

If you are renting a vehicle through the SLU Transportation Department, the additional $3 per day will be automatically added to all rentals.

For other rental companies, we have outlined the coverages below:

- (ALI) Liability – This is Liability coverage. Employees should take out this coverage for rentals. The coverage purchased should be at least $100,000.
- (LDW) Loss Damage Waiver – Loss Damage Waiver is not insurance and not mandatory. University employees should not take out this coverage.
- (PAI) Personal Accident Insurance - This is not needed because employees are covered by the University's Workers Compensation insurance policy when traveling for business purposes.
- (PEP) Personal Effects Insurance – University employees should not take out this coverage.
